The Quincy Daily Ledger.

The date for the first issue of Quincy's daily news is near, and many are waiting with some curiosity to see what kind of an appearance the LEDGER will make.

The publishers are very much pleased with the generous support which the local merchants already accord to it, and will start the enterprise with a faint heart.

They will soon "Quince" and "Bard" the new paper, and the additional space for the local news, etc., will be added to receive the latest telegraphic news, correspondence and special articles, and are confident they will present a readable, newsy and wide-awake daily. The QUINCY PATRIOT has taken rank among the best local weeklies of the State, and will continue to be a welcome visitor. The wish is that the LEDGER may be as successful.

The Street Loans.

While the PATRIOT is in accord with some movement toward the permanent repair of the streets of the city, it will be surprised if there is not some discussion over the report of the Committee on Streets and the organization of a large loan reported by the Council according to the terms of all the meetings.

The election of trustees to elect the secretary and treasurer to be elected by the board, the by-laws being so amended.

Sixty-one members were reported as admitted during the past year.

The treasurer's report showed all bills paid, and everything in a sound condition.

The election of Sabbath School officers for the ensuing year was held, and the result will be announced next Sunday evening.

Last night the Ladies' Missionary Society held a meeting in the vestry of the church.

The Greenleaf Associates are to start Monday a new avenue through the Woodward property recently acquired, leaving Hancock street just south of the residence of Rev. D. M. Wilson.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE QUINCY PATRIOT, SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1890.

A Good Bill.

The Senate committee on the judiciary has reported a bill the novelty of which should subject it to careful examination. It provides that "any person who shall lease, hire or occupy any store, shop or room, in any city or town, for the sale, at retail, of stock of goods, wares or merchandise which have been taken into such city or town after the first day of May in any year, shall pay to the treasurer of said city or town a license fee for the carrying of such sale." The other sections provide the method and rate of the assessment of the license fee, which is to be fixed by the city or town treasurer on the valuation of the stock at the rate of the preceding tax levy in that place.

The purpose of the bill is plain. It is to put a stop to the custom of taking a stock of goods into a town for a few weeks, and, by dint of advertising and "booming things," rush them off in competition with regular dealers in that town. As this cannot be prevented by direct prohibitory legislation, the purpose is to put these sellers on a level with regular dealers so far as taxation is concerned, and, as taxes are levied as of May 1, this can only be done requiring a license fee.

Have No "Best" Room.

The old custom of reserving the sunniest and cheeriest room in the house for "company" is fast passing away, we are told, to say the least. The common sense of saving the family which lives in the house the year round have the benefit of this cheer, instead of the very occasional guest or caller, is rapidly coming to the front. The New York Mail and Express takes a most sensible view in the subject, the moral of which is, perhaps, have all better and no best rooms.

The mere fact that there is a forbidden spot in the household in itself hinders social intercourse. A feeling of restraint becomes diffused through the family and renders the atmosphere of home chilly. When the parlor is opened and visitors received, both the callers and their entertainers are ill at ease. To the latter the place seems as strange as the house of another person, conversation lags and becomes insipid; each one feels he is in a sacred part of the house, and a sense of his obligation to polish up manners. Topics of interest are barred out of conversation, and when one caller makes the rounds of half a dozen residences he realizes what a mockery the whole thing is. In fact, it is more a duty than a pleasure, and when leaving one of these rooms where extraordinary pains are taken to keep everything prim and clean, it is hard to keep from uttering an expression of relief. Most families set apart the healthiest apartment for a purpose which is in no way beneficial, and at the same time spend their lives in dingy and unwholesome rooms, simply to keep one place in good order. There is no philosophy in this; adults and children alike need fresh air and sunlight. Sacrifice the parlor for health every time and it will be found immensely profitable. If "company" objects to being received by you as you are, then it is far better that its coming be dispensed with entirely.

The Proper Weight of Man.

Professor Huxley asserts that the proper weight of a man is 154 pounds, made up as follows: Muscles and their appurtenances, sixty-eight pounds; skeleton, twenty-four pounds; skin, ten and one-half pounds; fat, twenty-eight pounds; brain, three pounds; abdominal viscera, eleven pounds; blood, which would drain from the body, seven pounds. The heart of such a man should beat seventy-five times a minute, and he should breathe fifteen times a minute. In twenty-four hours he should vitiate 1,750 cubic feet of pure air to the extent of one per cent. A man, therefore, of the weight mentioned should have 800 cubic feet of well ventilated space. He should throw off through the skin eighteen ounces of water, 300 grains of solid matter and 400 grains of carbonic acid every twenty-four hours, and his total loss during that period should be six pounds of water and about two pounds of other matter.—St. Louis Republic.

Storage Battery Cars.

The Somerville Journal says the West End road has been having so much trouble with its electric cars lately that its managers must have some doubt whether they have adopted the best electric system. In Philadelphia and New York the electric motor cars run by storage batteries seem to be giving satisfaction. The Philadelphia Ledger says that repeated experiments have shown this to be the ideal system for running street cars, if the expense is not too great, and that President Wharton estimates that the cost is less than that of running the cars by horse power. In New York, after a recent snow fall, the storage battery cars were the only surface road cars that were able to keep on schedule time. The trouble with the trolley system is that a break anywhere in the circuit stops the cars all along the line, and while the powerless cars block the track horse cars cannot be used. In case of a strike of employees, the whole horse-railroad system could be crippled at once. The West End managers, however, have set out to get the best thing in the market in the way of an electric system, and they may safely be trusted to get the best, after considering all contingencies, for their own as well as for the public interest.

Few commodities offered to the public have come out of the crucial test of criticism in as good shape as has Brussels soap. They never fail to do.

TO LET IT ALL OFF.

A dog howled at me in the dark.

An toad came from his hole to croak,

And the devil cat in anger spat;

At me beneath the druid oak;

And, as he never creaked before,

Creaks yonder swinging dairy door.

There is a dog's head in the fire,

As he goes to sleep again,

And down the lane I see a train

Of shadowing, nummering phantoms pass;

I see those ghostly shadows go

Where broods the grawsome carriage crew.

The fax I strewed outside the door

Some c— write hath whisked away;

The candle burns away and turns

Its flames where bones of men decay.

The picture in my cup portends

The loss of riches, health, and friends!

SUPPLEMENT TO THE QUINCY PATRIOT, SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1890.

HOW TO USE THE ROAD SCRAPER.

Some Useful Hints on the Repairing of Roads.

In a little book on "Improvement of Highways," prepared under the auspices of the League of American Wheelmen, an anonymous writer, who is vouched for as authority, writes as follows on the subject of road making as applied to the care and improvement of the track:

"To provide a smooth highway," he says, "is now a very simple and inexpensive work, as labor saving machinery has recently been introduced which, under ordinary conditions, is very effective. The 'road scraper' or 'hose,' mounted in a frame on wheels and geared so that it can be set to any plane and angle, will smooth off and round up a dirt road quickly and cheaply, compared with former methods. The general practice of the road master has been to defer the annual repairs till such a time as the farmer has most leisure or inclination to work out the road tax; this would usually be late in the summer, or even in the fall when the road crust is at its hardest stage, and after being broken up and spread anew is too dry to harden again readily. Now that the 'road home' may be used, work that took a week in the fall may easily be done in a day in the spring. Thus the road will be in the right form for summer travel at the opening of the season, instead of at its close. This would also be making the repairs at the earliest opportunity after the chief damage is done. The worst ruts and ridges are formed early in the spring when the frost is thawing out, and the ground, being loose and porous, absorbs all the rainfall till the road bed becomes spongy and miry. When the ground has dried sufficiently to be neither muddy nor crusty, the rough ridges are in their most friable condition. They can then be planed down with the road hose with much greater ease, and the material carried into the ruts and holes, will pack and harden much better than at any other time, whether the road be chiefly clay, loam, sand, gravel or small stones. This medium stage of dryness gives the best conditions for easy and effective work. If the work be neglected for only a few weeks, the crust may become so hard under the constant pressure of traffic and the baking sunshine that the horse can make no impression on it. If the work be deferred till midsummer or later, the 'crown' will probably be worn off the center of the road, and instead of shedding rain to each side it will carry it along like a water course. Heavy thunderstorms often cause great damage when a road thus becomes flat or hollow in the middle. To restore the proper form when the margins become high and hard is very laborious work, whether done with pick and shovel or with plow and scoop. The material will not pack readily in dry weather, and the newly repaired road may for weeks be in worse condition than before it was worked. Instead of extensive repairs of this character only once a year, it would be much better to give a timely scraping as soon as practicable after the chief damage is done in the spring, and also an occasional honing after heavy rains, or whenever from any cause the surface becomes rough. One machine would be sufficient for a large district, and the time, methods and terms of the work can be arranged on a satisfactory and permanent basis after a few years' experience. Under ordinary conditions a fair road can be maintained throughout the season with simply this occasional passage of the road hose over it. The cost would be very small compared with present methods. Of course these machines are only suitable where the road is built up with the ordinary soil or subsoil of the district, or with perhaps more or less gravel or small stones in certain sections. This, however, is the ordinary structure of all our country roads, and hence this treatment will be quite generally applicable."

In the same work is printed a treatise by Mr. Clements Herschell, which treats of the kindred subject of road repairs as follows:

"After a road has been properly rolled, and the surface made compact and smooth, it should always be maintained in that condition, no matter how great is the amount of travel on it. A stitch in time saves nine; here as well as elsewhere. The tendency is to produce ruts; these gather water; this soaks into the road bed and spoils the whole. The problem can be put in this way: To have a good road it is necessary that there be no dust or mud on the same, and that there be no ruts; therefore, remove the dust and mud as fast as they are formed and fill up the ruts as fast as they are made. The whole matter is here in a nutshell. It may be thought, at the first view, that this is too expensive a system. Its principal beauty lies, however, in the fact that it costs less per mile of road kept one year than the pernicious system of annual or semi-annual repairs, as can be shown and proved. The above two rules—sweep off the mud and dust as fast as they are formed, and fill up the ruts and bad places with new materials as fast as they appear—are all that is necessary to be carried out in order that there be continually a good road. Without continual repairs there can be no such thing as a constantly good road—a proposition that cannot too often be repeated. By repairing a road annually, or twice a year, it matters not which, the result is, strictly speaking, a good road at no time during the whole year. The road is wreathed just after repairs; it becomes passable after awhile, and disappears from sight again, until it is again made wreathed; and so on ad infinitum, according to the present only too commonly followed system. By the other method is offered us a road as smooth as a floor, year in and year out, and, let it not be forgotten, at less expense."

The following, from W. T. C. Wardwell, of the Rhode Island board of agriculture, states the farmers' view: "There can be but one view taken in regard to the advantage of good country roads, not only to the farmer but to the whole state, in the increased value of property. Why the farmers, paying their proportion of the taxes, deriving no benefit from any fire service, and having no police protection, still submit to the miserable country roads without a vigorous protest, is beyond my comprehension."

IN THE HALL.

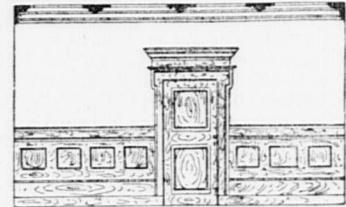

Hints as to the Construction and Interior Decorations.

The functions of the hall of a comfortable residence are to afford access to the different parts of the house, and it may be considered the main conduit in the general system of communication, large enough to contain the staircase, passages and furniture, etc.

It is not possible to say very much in praise of the hall in city houses; it is usually a narrow and rather dark passage to the stairway usually devoid of ornamentation or decoration. It is a matter of necessity that the stairs should be central, and the proportion of risers and treads and the lengths of each flight are to a certain extent dictated to us by their intended use, and leave little chance of variation or altered modes of construction. Where possible the stairs should be thrown back through an arcade or bay, so as to give a pleasant background and to provide as large an inner area as possible for light and air. All such recessed treatment would give greater depth and add size and dignity to the principal feature of the good house.

If we would be genial hosts we should have our greetings echoed by appropriate surroundings.

The spirit of welcome may be made to pervade the apartment in which we live if we know how to express ourselves in the silent language of art. For the hall, a hard wood floor is an absolute necessity; plain if our means are limited, but where it is possible let it be laid in patterns; square or other geometric figures for the center, with a richer border. Good taste would prefer that the center should be entirely of the same wood, so that it matches the floor. The border may be designed for a combination of woods, such as oak and cherry, or oak and maple, or maple and mahogany, glass or sycamore, ash or Georgia pine. In laying floors in patterns it is well to choose woods which will not form too strong contrasts, such as oak and maple, oak and yellow pine, mahogany and cherry, etc. Georgia pine, being the cheapest wood, may be used in largest quantities, with a few bands of oak or cherry about the walls for a border, which seems to be a necessity, even though the same wood is used. The color of the pine is a bright yellow, and serves as a good background for rugs; but if too strong for the scheme of color adopted, it can be stained darker.

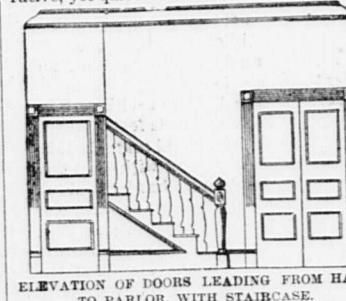

SUGGESTION FOR STAINED GLASS WINDOWS.

An open fireplace is included in the contract; it should be broadly treated. We can rely only on the surface and color of its material for its beauty, or it may be richly carved. In its composition it should be simple and have few subdivisions. The shelf should be high, to contain a few large ornaments.

The hearth may be of pressed brick, or thick colored tiles, sometimes laid in herring bone, but usually in simple patterns, broad enough to receive the loose dust and ashes. The fire place should be lined on the inside with fire brick, or to have ornamental cast iron linings. Large and various of brass or wrought iron should be used to receive the logs of wood, or basket grate for coal—whatever may be the conditions.

If a high wainscoting is used, it should be six or seven feet in height, keeping the moldings flat and using beveled panels. The entire wall surface above may be treated as a frieze. With a low wainscoting the walls should be treated differently, the divisions depending upon the proportions of the room. The ceiling should be heavily panelled, if of sufficient height. The exposed beams may be easel and carved or molded, and panels of wood or plaster formed by a system of cross beams.

The question of color arises we must choose a key note or prevailing tone as a contrast. If mahogany or cherry doors and trimmings are used, a red of the same color should be chosen for walls, but lighter in tone. The walls are best without patterns if the last two coats of paint are stippled so as to give a dull surface. The frieze may come down to the top of the door frames and be in irregular design worked in tones of yellow. The ceiling should be treated with lines of soft red on a yellow ground, and the effect will be decorative, yet quiet and subdued.

ELEVATION OF DOORS LEADING FROM HALL TO PARLOR, WITH STAIRCASE.

If we desire a greater contrast with the same colored wood work, we may employ a yellow ground for the wall surfaces and with an all over pattern in light brown or copper bronze. The frieze may be carried over the cornice line out on the ceiling, perhaps sixteen or eighteen inches, and stop with a molding or bands of color, leaving the ceiling a lighter tone without pattern. Blue is a difficult color to manage in large quantities and is not appropriate for the hall.

Our Public Duty.

Apost and distinct from business and home duties, every citizen has another duty, for the faithful performance of which he is accountable to his fellow citizens as well as to his own conscience. This duty consists not only in making proper nominations for officers and electing competent officials, but also in carefully watching and studying the actual wants and needs of the city, and by advice and counsel so aiding public officers, that they will know they have back of them an intelligent public support. A good many people suppose that they have fulfilled their obligations to the public when they have cast their ballots, but such is not and ought not to be the case. The average official knows no more than the average citizen, and questions which affect the city as a whole can always be best settled when the former receives from the latter all the information which intelligent and practical study will allow him to impart. Our City Council is composed of men chosen from the ordinary walks of life, and of ordinary education and intelligence; it is such a body as may always be expected to be the best friends of the community, but the fact still remains that they are capable of receiving assistance which will aid them in arriving at conclusions in accordance with sound public policy. To reach this desirable end no method will be more wise and efficient than the acquiring of a general knowledge of the public requirements.

There are always certain things which an individual needs which he can afford to have, there are other things which he needs but cannot afford to have; if he be wise he purchases the first and goes without the second until some more favorable time.

So when we are talking about having a water supply, sewers and permanent (9) roads, we must have in mind our public duty to the whole city and think what the result is to be of an unusual and heavy tax rate based on a fairly full valuation.

Can Quincy afford to be conspicuous as a high tax rate city? It is a public duty for every citizen to carefully study this question. Our old New England ancestors set an example which should not be forgotten. They were the most thrifty and industrious primitives that they might live within their income. Improvements came with aowrance with ability to pay, and all luxuries and many necessities were considered by the standard of income, and by that standard either adopted or rejected. All questions of a public nature were the subject of every day discussion; the people as a whole took great interest in the affairs of the day, and did not hesitate to express their opinions to those in authority. Citizens of Quincy should do the same and set apart from the time at their disposal sufficient to attend to their public duties.

Universalist Entertainment.

PLAN ADOPTED IN NEW JERSEY.

A NEAT COUNTRY RESIDENCE.
A Pretty and Nicely Arranged Home at a Low Cost.

[Copyright by Palliser, Palliser & Co., Architects,
New York.]

This design was carried out, and is a very neat and attractive house, and as it was necessary in the execution of this plan to obtain the required amount of room and conveniences at a given cost, the exterior had to be very plain and simple in detail to allow it.

The front faces the west. Thus we have a south view from four rooms on first floor, and a front view from dining room. The front veranda is wide, and arranged so that the front door is wide enough to admit the entrance hall, and the stairs leading up to the floor above, the platform or landing being on a level with floor over kitchen wing, making two risers more up to floor in main house. There is a collar under the whole house, the laundry is under kitchen. The stairs to collar are placed under main stairs, and reached directly from the kitchen.

"Respecting work on country roads," said Mr. Ripley, "the work in Union county is progressing slowly, but, according to contract, rigidly in all cases. Many questions have been asked me about the provisions of the contracts under which we are working, mostly by letters, which I am still receiving from many sections of country suburban to New York. I should be glad to answer them, once for all. Our public roads are generally laid out 65 feet wide. Of this width one foot is taken off at each end, and when found, controls all other lines in the progress of the work.

"The first among the essentials of a first class road is drainage. The contract, specifications and drawings all provide for such a grade as shall carry off all water from the surface of the road and that which percolates through the stone. Before any stone is laid the roadway is perfectly graded, with reference to shedding water toward the side as well as to each side is regular. A shoulder is left on each margin of the 16-foot bed, so that the foundation stones cannot spread. The roadbed is made smooth and rolled before any stones are placed on it.

"After its preparation is completed a layer of blocks of stone about 12 inches long by 6 or 8 inches on the sides is laid, each stone by hand. Each stone stands an inch or so away from other stones.

The stones of the first layer are pretty uniform in size, and of trap rock, and crack or split easily when struck with a stone hammer, which is used on the top of each stone till all are broken into, say, half a dozen pieces.

The broken pieces fall down wedge shape, spreading so as to fill the vacant spaces left between the blocks, as originally laid, and form a mass of wedged stones that will stand in the position they are left by the hammer forever, we may almost say. After this the roller is applied, and the stones are packed by rolling. Then a layer of larger stones is placed upon this foundation, say stones of the size of 2 to 2½ inches on a side. This layer is then filled, and a finer grade is used on top, all stone dust and gravel complete the evenness of the surface. The roller now in use on the Union county roads is a steam roller, and has a pressure of twelve tons."

"What do such roads cost, and how is the money raised?"

"The cost is about $10,000 a mile, I judge by observation and imperfect reports. It is not far from that sum, I can safely say. It seems a great deal to one not acquainted with road making. It is not. We have few good roads in our county that have not cost at least that amount of money per mile. And they wear out in a few years. The money under our county act is raised by bonds, running twenty years at 4½ per cent. interest.

The interest on these bonds is all that the present generation will have to pay, as a rule. It is very light, too, when spread over a county. A taxpayer owning a house and lot worth $5,000, and having $5,000 more out at interest, told me the other day his yearly tax would not be more than a dollar or two greater on account of these roads. Although at first a croaker and opposed to them, he is now in favor of the roads."

"But when the bonds fall due, what then?"

"When the bonds fall due Union county will contain three times the number of inhabitants it has at present, and the taxable property will be three times as great. This we are safe in assuming, and more, judging the future by the past two decades. I have fresh evidences every day of the increasing interest in improving carriage roads in Rockland,

Orange, Dutchess and Westchester counties in New York. The earth is so full of water from the excessive rainy season

we are passing through that the old style of gravel roads has been put to a severer test than ever before in the memory of this generation. This accounts in some degree for the increased interest and makes better roads a greater necessity."

Gravel Top.

Mr. Clemens Herschel, whose treatise on road making is printed in the little book on highway improvement issued by the League of American Wheelmen, writes as follows of the use of gravel on roads: "Instead of the macadam top, screened gravel may be used. The foundation for these gravel roads should be the same as the rough paving for the macadam road. The gravel to be used should be of a hard kind of stone, clean, free from clay, of the right color,

etc. It is put on in two layers, each rolled,

and the top one made compact and firm,

by spreading and mixing in some good binding material, sprinkling and rolling. There need be no fear of making a poor road by using the smoothest, most water worn pebbles, free from all sand, etc., in making a road

top. The upper portions of the river

Rhine are remarkable for the clean, smooth pebbles that form its bed to a very great depth. These pebbles are dragged up and used in road building, making an excellent road covering at a small expense."

SUPPLEMENT TO THE QUINCY PATRIOT, SATURDAY, APRIL 12, 1890.

OFF FOR SLUMBERLAND.

Purple waves of evening play
Upon the western shores of day,
While babies sail, so safe and free
Over the mystic Slumber Sea.

Their little boats are cradles light;
The sails are curtains pure and white;
The rudders are sweet lullabies;
The anchors, soft and sleepy sighs.

They're outward bound for Slumberland,
Where shining dreams lie on the sand,
Like whispering shells that murmur low
The pretty fancies babies know.

And there, among the dreamy shells bright,
The little ones who sleep at night,
Until the sun tide turns—then They'll all come sailing home again.

—Caroline Evans in St. Nicholas.

ALICES FORTUNE.

"Sister Theodosia," said a feeble voice from the bed.

The Sister of Charity, a mild faced woman of middle age, answered the summons of the dying man, and approached the bedside.

The dying man was Hector Moritz, a carpenter, who had fallen from a house which he was building, a few days before, and so injured himself that he could not recover. He lived just outside the village of St. Barbe, with his little girl, Alice, now 7 years old. His wife had died three years before, but Alice, child as she was, could make coffee and cook an omelet as skillfully as if she were twice as old, and had acted as her father's little housekeeper. So it happened that, being alone, an unusual affection had sprung up between Alice and her father.

The Sister of Charity approached the bedside. The sick man's face expressed anxiety, and his eye turned from the nurse to his little girl, who was pale and grief-stricken, yet had self-control enough not to betray her emotion lest it should distress her father in his last moments.

"What can I do for you, M. Moritz?" asked Sister Theodosia, in a gentle voice.

His glance wandered to his little girl once more.

"Alice," he gasped, "provided for."

"Do you mean that you wish Alice provided for?" asked the sister, striving to interpret his broken words.

"Already provided for—money there," and he pointed vaguely downwards.

"Poor man! He is wandering in mind," thought the sister—for he was pointing to the floor; but she thought it best to appear to have understood him.

"Yes," she said gently, "have no anxiety."

He looked at her wistfully, and then, seeming to think he was understood, he fell back upon the pillow from which he had lifted his head, and a moment after expired.

When Alice realized that her father was really dead she gave way to excessive grief—so excessive that it soon wore itself out, leaving her pale and sorrowful. Sister Theodosia took her into her lap and pressed her head against her bosom in sad compassion, for little Alice was now without father or mother.

In due time Hector Moritz was buried, and the next thing to be considered was, how should Alice be disposed of?

Hector Moritz left two near relatives, both cousins. One of these was a thriving tradesman in the next town, a man who had prospered, partly through his selfishness, which was excessive. The other, also residing in the next town, was a poor shoemaker with a large family, who found it hard enough to make both ends meet, but was, withal, kind and cheerful, beloved by his children, for whom he could do so little, and popular in the village.

These two cousins met at the funeral of Hector Moritz.

"I suppose Hector died poor," said M. Ponchard, the tradesman, a little uneasily.

"This house is all he owned, so far as I know," said the notary, "and it is mortgaged for nearly its value."

"Humph! that is bad for the child," said M. Ponchard.

"I suppose you will take her home, M. Ponchard?" said the notary, bluntly.

"We all know that you are a prosperous man."

The tradesman drew back.

"If I am prosperous," he said, "I have had to work for my money. It is all I can do to provide for my own family. I can't support other people's children."

"Then you won't do anything for the child?"

"I didn't say that. I'll give her twenty-five, maybe fifty—francs. That's all I ought to do."

"And how long will fifty francs support her?" said the notary, disdainingly, for he detested the meanness of the rich tradesmen.

"That is not my affair. She need not starve. She can go to the almshouse."

"Who speaks of the almshouse?" spoke up M. Corbet, the poor shoemaker.

"M. Ponchard suggests that Alice go to the almshouse," said the notary.

"Not while I have a home to offer her," said the poor cousin warmly.

"But, M. Corbet," said the notary,

"you are poor. Can you afford, with your many children, to undertake an additional burden?"

"I never look on them as burdens—they are my joy and comfort," said M. Corbet. "I can't give Alice a luxurious home, but such as I have is welcome to me. I am sure the good God will not let me starve if I undertake the care of my little orphan cousin."

"He's a fool!" thought M. Ponchard contemptuously. "He will always be miserably poor."

But the notary grasped his hand, and said:

"M. Corbet, I respect you. If you are not rich in money, you are rich in a good heart, and that is the best kind of riches."

So, no opposition being made, the little Alice went home with the poor shoemaker. As for the cottage, that was left in the hands of the notary to sell. As already intimated, there was a mortgage upon it to nearly its full value, so that it was not likely to bring much over. What little there should be would, of course, go to Alice.

Several months passed without any opportunity to sell the cottage. During that time Alice remained at the house of M. Corbet, treated, I was about to say, like one of the family. This, however, would not be strictly correct. She was not treated like one of the family, but better than one of the family; in short, like a favored guest, for whom nothing was too good.

But unfortunately at this juncture, M. Corbet fell sick, and having always been compelled to live to the limit of his small income, had nothing saved up for the rainy day which had come upon him, and so the family were soon in a sad strait.

The notary heard of it and was stirred with compassion.

"If only Alice had something," he said to Sister Theodosia, whom he met one day at a sick bed; for the good Sister of Charity spent her time in tending the sick without compensation. "If only Alice had some small property she might come to the relief of her poor relation."

"And has she not?" asked Sister Theodosia.

"Nothing that I know of beyond the house, and upon that there is a mortgage to nearly its full value."

"But her father upon his deathbed told me that she was provided for."

"Did he, indeed?" asked the notary, surprised. "Did he say anything more?"

"No, he was unable to; but he pointed to the floor. I am afraid he was out of his head and meant nothing."

"Stop! I have an idea," said the notary, calling at the office of

"Alice," he gasped, "provided for."

"Do you mean that you wish Alice provided for?" asked the sister, striving to interpret his broken words.

"Already provided for—money there," and he pointed vaguely downwards.

"Poor man! He is wandering in mind," thought the sister—for he was pointing to the floor; but she thought it best to appear to have understood him.

THE WEATHER FOR SATURDAY.

Hillside, Milton.

Friday, April 18, 2 P.M.

Indications for Saturday: Fair weather, lower, followed by higher temperature; frost tonight.

H. H. CLAYTON, Observer.

TELEPHONE, 54-3 QUINCY.

A False Policy.

The policy adopted by the City Council at its last meeting on motion of Mr. Green of Ward One, will if persistently followed, create a tax rate in Quincy that will be unbearable.

Every year money must be raised by taxation to pay, not only what are known as ordinary expenses, but interest on debts and also maturing debts created in previous years.

Mr. Green's plan if carried to its extreme point, would result in borrowing the whole amount of the debt limit each year, and assessing the people the next year for enough not only to pay the debt, but also the ordinary running expenses besides.

Such a policy should be killed at its birth, for it gives promise of fatal financial difficulties in the future.

It would drive out of the city both the poor and the rich; those who hire and those who own real estate; nobody would come here to live, and all who could, would get away.

The law creating a tax limit and debt limit was intended to prevent excessive taxation; it intended to curtail expenditures within a reasonable limit and to distribute the payment of debts over a period of ten years, so that the burden to the people might be as light as possible.

Everything done in the nature of permanent improvements, should be paid for on the ten-year limit basis, if for no other reason than that new property is developed year by year, may bear its proportion of such expenditures.

Until the time shall arrive when we will be in condition to pay as we go, the ten-year division is the most equitable to follow, and it will show sound common sense on the part of the finance committee of the council if an amendment is reported Monday night making the loans payable in ten years.

The Building Boom.

The Trustees of the "Woodward Fund," have carefully guarded the city's interests by exacting from the purchasers a bond for the faithful performance of the provisions of the deed.

The most important restriction in the deed is that the entire estate shall be put on the market within one year. In our opinion however, the greater wisdom was shown in selling to parties thoroughly identified with the prosperity of Quincy.

The General Associates are already large owners of land in Quincy and this fact alone will compel a strict adherence to the spirit as well as the letter of the deed.

This has prompted the association to give to the citizens of Quincy the first chance to select for themselves and their friends desirable lots for present or future need.

We trust that all of our citizens will watch and help select those who are to come among us and make this beautiful spot their home. From 500 to 1000 good inhabitants can be added to the population of Quincy during the year, and we sincerely hope that our friends to come and hold on the Greenleaf estate.

In this way the city's valuation can be increased from three to five hundred thousand dollars.

An adjourned meeting of the School Committee was held Monday evening in its rooms in Durbin & Merrill's block. There were present Messrs. Brown, Cole, Corthell, Cotton, Crane, Gordon and Sheahan.

The reports of the School Committee of 1889, and of the Superintendent were accepted and adopted, and will be printed in the paper.

It was voted to employ Mr. E. Emery Fellows, who has done the work in recent years, to take the school census May 1.

The salaries of Miss Beatty and Miss Manson, both of the John Hancock school, were fixed at $45 each per annum.

The Superintendent was instructed to report at the next meeting those pupils attending school outside the district in which they live.

To keep the observance of Arbor day, the following reminiscences chosen at the last meeting of the Quincy Village Improvement Society, will co-operate with the principles of the several schools.

For the Washington school, Mrs. J. L. Whiston, John R. Graham.

Coddington, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Babcock, Adams, Mrs. H. D. Dewson, Levi Stevens, Willard, Miss Addie W. Miller, Adam Vogel.

High, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sanborn.

The secretary, Annie E. Sanford, will correspond with the societies at Wollaston and Atlantic, with reference to the day.

A committee from the New England Insurance Exchange in Boston have made an inspection of the stone-working risks in this city for the purpose of rating them according to a schedule. These risks were formerly rated under a minimum rating, so-called, which did not tend to encourage improvements or benefit those who had first-class risks. Where the rating by schedule has been completed, the manufacturers who own buildings properly constructed and under the protection of hydrant service and thus are willing to improve the condition of their risks, will receive a much better rate of insurance than that prevailing.

The Board of Assessors at its meeting Friday morning divided the city into two parts for the purpose of assessing, viz: Wards One, Two and Three to be assessed by Messrs. Perkins, Federlin and Mitchell; Wards Three, Four and Five by Messrs. Kimball, Waterhouse and Pope. Last year Wards One, Three and Four constituted one district. Assessor Federlin will be secretary of the first board, and Assessor Pope of the second. The annual notice of the Assessors will appear in Saturday's PATRIOT.

The annual meeting of the Quincy Association was held at their rooms in the Durbin & Merrill Block Saturday evening. The officers elected for the ensuing year were:

President—George H. Hitchcock.

Vice President—James Thompson.

Secretary—Charles H. Verry.

Treasurer—A. G. Durbin.

Finance Committee—Dr. J. A. Gordon, W. Walter Ewell, Joseph C. Morse.

The Rev. W. H. Lyon, one of Boston's capable preachers, is to deliver a practical discourse in Stone Temple Sunday evening. The public are cordially invited.

Arbor Day in the Schools.

At the High School, Arbor day exercises were held at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning. The programme was an exceedingly interesting one. Each of the pupils did his number well. After the exercises some Japanese tree was planted.

Order of Exercises.

Song, "Hail Thee, My Baby School." The Baby-Spring Reading, Edith W. Jenkins, The Mechanism of a Tree Frank A. Souther.

Piano Solo, Dorothy Eddleman, Plant a Tree Reading, Eliza P. Gray, William L. Sullivan, The Fairies' Shopping Mabel E. Oxford.

Piano Duet, Les Dames de Seville May E. Kendrick and Alice L. Crane, The Mayapple Tree Reading, Charles L. Hammond, Forest Song Lucy W. Brown.

Song, School, Planting Trees Eva G. Reed, La Sonambula, Walter E. Loud.

Reading, Famous Trees Annie J. Eaton, Song Without Words No. 12 Maude M. Perry.

Reading, The Wayside Inn Stella M. Creath, The Venetian Boatman's Song School.

Song, Other Schools.

In the Grammar school Arbor day was taken less notice of than on previous years.

The songs which were sung were all appropriate to the day. In the Adams school some recitations on Arbor day were given. At the John Hancock the teachers brought Arbor day to the children's mind with interesting talks, etc.

It may have been the wet weather which dampened the ardor of both pupils and teacher. The High school pupils were the only enthusiastic ones our reporter met.

At the Greenstreet school report no there were some compositions and recitations in keeping with the day. Six trees were planted.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Slade celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage on Wednesday evening at their residence on Silver street, Quincy Point.

Some congratulations were issued and 120 guests were present to offer their congratulations, and enjoy the generous hospitality bestowed.

The years that have passed have touched Councilman Slade and his wife most tenderly, and they certainly bid fair to be a golden wedding couple.

The gathering was a representative one; the elite of Quincy was present, including Mayor Porter, members of the city government and many prominent ladies and gentlemen. Boston, Philadelphia, Newark, N. J., and other places were also represented among the guests.

The wedding was very enjoyable, as it could not fail to be with Mr. and Mrs. Slade as host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Slade were assisted in receiving by their daughters, Misses Amy and Helen, and their sons, Mr. James H., Jr., and Master Charles P. Slade.

The ushers were Mr. John A. Thayer, Jr., Mr. James F. Harlow, Mr. Joseph E. Bourke and Mr. George E. Pfaffman.

An elegant supper was served by Weier of Boston.

J. White Belcher Resigns.

John, White Belcher of Randolph, who has filled the office of clerk of the District Court of East Norfolk since its establishment in 1872, has sent in his resignation to take effect May 1. His recent election as president of the Dedham Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and increasing business, rendered the move most imperative.

This district includes the city of Quincy and the towns of Milton, Braintree, Weymouth, Randolph, Holbrook and Colasset, and small communities in this city are already reported, viz., Waltham, Weston, Esg., W. W. Jones, Esq., and Frank A. Tirrell, Esg., three rising young barristers. Each have a petition in their support, that of the first-named having the strongest local backing. Mr. Tirrell counts on the assistance of the lawyers of the county, while Judge Humphrey is said to favor Mr. Jenness. The salary attached to the office is $700.

The Greenleaf Land.

Quincy is to be congratulated that the Greenleaf land is in the hands of those whose propose and are able not only to make this section first class in every respect but they are inviting the co-operation of all of our interested citizens. Quincy people are to have the first chance and at a low price. Then after a thorough effort has been made to sell to people right around us those at a greater distance will be invited and the price will be advanced. We are happy to state that so far inquiries have been made to such an extent by purchasers that the new settlement will receive a liberal sprinkling of Quincy men.

Manet Electric R. R.

At a meeting of the stockholders Monday the following officers were elected:

President, A. D. S. Bell; treasurer, Charles A. Potter; clerk, A. D. McCallan; directors, A. D. S. Bell, George W. Morton, J. D. Taber, F. D. Maynard, James E. Lyon; executive committee, A. D. S. Bell, F. D. Maynard, George W. Morton.

Work on the road will commence at once, and by June we hope to see the cars running to Houghs Neck. Stock for sale by George W. Morton, real estate agent, Adams Building.

CORRECTION. Among our items last week we said that the mortgage on the First Presbyterian church had been discharged, it should have been the mortgage on the house not the church.

Brockton has big blips. The latest proposal is to have a public park, and the site under consideration will be $100,000. The Enterprise explains, "When you query, 'how about a sewerage system, good drinking-water, and a hospital in the meantime?'"

The alarm from Box 35, at the corner of Hancock and School streets at 1:15 Tuesday afternoon, was rung in because of the spreading of a bonfire in the rear of Mitchell's block. Michael Crooks was engaged in burning up some rubbish and the fire got beyond his control. The Fire Department responded with its usual promptness, the team was necessary. To light a fire in such close proximity to a building is criminal, and should not be treated lightly. The recall was sounded at 1:25.

Their Opportunity.

Men holding public office often have opportunities to show the people that their best interests are being looked after and that the public treasury is being carefully watched and guarded.

Such an opportunity will present itself at the next meeting of the City Council, and it remains to be seen as to how many Councilmen will embrace it. The conservative and wisely economical members will then have a chance to defeat the appropriation of $5000 for West street, $6000 for sidewalks and the extra $4100 for street lights, all of which are to say the least, of doubtful expediency.

No member should be bound by any previous agreement or vote, provided his honest judgment has been changed after careful consideration, neither should any member feel it to be his duty to support any measure on sectional grounds.

The broad view only should prevail in public affairs, and the wants of the city should be considered in connection with its financial condition. Economy is not parsimony; it is a prudent man is a miser. There is a wide difference easily understood by men of common sense, and no one should be driven into voting for extravagant schemes by the raising of false issues. A few thousands of dollars borrowed for each of various improvements, soon swells the total to tens of thousands, and leaves but a small margin at the disposal of the city with which to meet any emergency that may arise. The victory of the Mayor should certainly induce every Councilman to again carefully examine the various measures, weigh them fairly and candidly and if there are a doubt even, as to their expediency, the city treasury should receive the benefit of that doubt. Conservatism should prevail in a city like Quincy; it is not a Brookline, a Milton or a Cohasset, where large personal properties are centred which admit of large expenditures at a small rate of taxation.

Adams Street Accident.

We were pleased to learn this week that Mrs. Isaac Shute of East Milton, was recovering from the accident of April 30. We think the city is very lame in some matters concerning public safety. Mr. Shute informed us that he was driving toward Quincy with his wife, the morning in question, and on coming to the hollow just before Greenough's corner, found the road obstructed by trees from derrieks etc., where men were fixing the road. He waited for the trees to be slackened and then the men told him all was right so he started on. He was soon in water and when happening to plow up he had hardly time to dodge a wire rope, which struck the upper part of the carriage turning the whole completely over. Mrs. Shute being buried in the ruins, the carriage, Mr. Shute and the horses on top, it is really remarkable no limbs were broken and that she came out of it without serious injury. Dr. Gordon was sent for and barely escaped a like fate being stopped just before he reached the wire. Now if the city is obliged to have any of its roads in an unsafe condition, why do they not have notices at the cross roads so that people may go by another way? We know of a gentleman who was in a lurch to reach Milton one stormy night, and on reaching the above mentioned place, had to turn back in all the rain and go through Wollaston.

Obituary.

Mr. William Parker, a well known and highly respected citizen of Quincy, died on Friday afternoon of last week, at his home on Hancock court, after a long and tedious illness of many months, of heart disease. He had been a resident of Quincy over fifty years, and being a man of genial and pleasant manners, had a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Parker was born in Parsonsfield, Maine, and made a carpenter, which occupation he always followed, and became a contractor and builder, and many large and handsome buildings in this city are monuments to his mechanical skill and ability. The first house built by him was that now occupied by Mr. Amos Churchill on Hancock street. He also built the Robertson block, Almshouse High, Coddington and Quincy schoolhouses and remodelled the Universal church; besides many of the best houses in the city, including those of Hon. John Quincy Adams and William B. Rice, Esq.

In 1816 and 1818 he was elected on the basis of his services to the fire department, and being an ex-engineer the fire alarm was tolled as the funeral was passing to the grave.

For many years he was prominent in the Universal church and society, serving on the parish committee and as trustee and deacon.

He leaves a widow and married son; also two sons, Philip Parker and Mr. Elton Harrington, of this city. Had he lived until May 20, he would have been married fifty years.

He was a member of Rural Lodge of Masons, and a charter member we believe at its reorganization. The lodge took charge of the funeral, which took place from his late residence on Monday, and was largely attended.

PERSONAL. We are sorry to learn that one of our honest and industrious citizens has been confined to his residence for many weeks. We refer to Mr. Freeman whose health is failing rapidly. He is the father of the large family of ten, and has not been well for a long time. A disease had partly left him when he was troubled with the kidney and heart disease, and is now so badly afflicted as to be obliged to sit up nights; not being able to lie down. We hope soon to see him again, as good citizens are none too plenty in any city.

New candidates for the clerkship of the Quincy Board of Fire Underwriters, have been appointed and are appearing, and Messrs. W. M. Packard and F. T. Appleton, find they have some formidable rivals. T. L. Jenness is practically out of the race. Mr. W. M. Marden of Weymouth was making a good fight, but new other popular candidates appear in Councillor Ewell and Mr. Joseph M. Glover of Quincy and a Cohasset gentleman.

CITY BRIEFS.

A match has been arranged between William Millane of this city and Joseph Powers of Worcester, for $100 a side. The distance to be 100 yards.

Complimentary invitations are out for private theatricals to be given by the Quincy Shakespeare club, in Faxon hall, Tuesday evening, May 27.

An ingenious mechanical contrivance in the show window at G. F. Wilson & Co.'s attracts much attention. It will smoke either a cigar or cigarette.

Memorial Day.

Next Friday being a legal holiday we shall not issue the DAILY LEDGER until afternoons. The PATRIOT will be printed Thursday night, one day earlier. Let all correspondents, advertisers and others having notices to be published, hand in the same early on Thursday.

On this memorable occasion some three hundred graves of soldiers and sailors will be tenderly and carefully looked after by Paul Revere Post of this city. The members will meet at their headquarters at 7 A.M., and Sergeant Major John S. Farrell with the comrade will visit Mount Auburn cemetery at Cambridge and decorate the grave of Col. Paul Revere.

The Senior Vice-Commander, Charles L. Orme will contrade and captain of the day, Rev. Elmer Mene, will proceed to the National Sailor's Home at Wollaston, where appropriate services will be held and floral offerings placed on the graves of the sailors.

The Junior Vice-Commander, Franklin Curtis, with twenty-five comrades will go to the Mount Wollaston cemetery and decorate the monuments and graves of 125 soldiers.

The Officer of the Day, Warren Dunbar and ten comrades will look after the graves in the Hancocks and English cemetery.

At 9.30 the Post under command of John D. Williams will proceed to West Quincy, where services and decorations in the several cemeteries will take place.

At 12 a collation will be served by Command Osborne and Woman's Relief Corps.

In the afternoon at 2 a line will be formed at headquarters, consisting of the American Brass Band, Francis L. Souther Camp Sons of Veterans, Paul Revere Woman's Relief Corps, and invited guests, which will march to the Mount Wollaston cemetery where the Soldiers' monument will be decorated with appropriate emblems, which will conclude the exercises of the day.

On Sunday morning the Post will attend services in the Universalist church; and in the evening at the Congregational church, accompanied by the Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans, where an address will be delivered by our former townsmen, George W. Penniman.

Rev. William H. Trickey, of South Newmarket, N.H., who will preach at the Universalist, will be present and familiar to many as "Moxie" Trickey, and the service will be a special one.

Ladies of the city should not forget the Post, but should send in liberally on Friday morning for the noon collation.

The Labor Situation.

All branches of the granite industry, with the exception of the quarrymen, have settled their differences, the bill has been signed and work was generally resumed last Monday morning.

The basis of the final settlement between the cutters and the manufacturers is as follows: The pay of a competent stonemason to be 30 cents per hour, and the minimum price 27 cents. Nine hours to constitute a day's work. The bill to take effect May 15, 1890, and to continue indefinitely from date above, and shall not be due on account of time.

Apprentices to serve three years and then be classed as journeymen. The changes in the bill of prices for piece work is as follows:

Bottom bases, raise of 5 cents per foot; second bases, plane 10-cent, or 1 foot 10 inches or over, there is also 5 cents raise; under 1 foot 10 inches there is a raise of 10 cents; on bevelled second base, 5 cents raise; bottom joints, 5 cents; the same, caps, raise of 10 cents per foot; on polished and plain, 5 cents; on some items 33 1/2 per cent. raise; mouldings, about the same; markers, same; headstones, increase of 5 cents; cemetery carlings, about the same; posts, raise of 5 per cent.; cemetery steps, about the same; margin lines on rock face work, raise of ten per cent.

While the granite workers have gained a nine hour day and a slight advance in prices, it is probable that many will be out of employment, as numerous orders were cancelled at the beginning of the trouble. Townes & Clements were employing the granite workers to be out, while Bros. have not had time now. F. Hardwick & Son will continue with one gang; they don't think the trouble is yet settled. McDonnell & Sons are employing less men and do not expect to do much business. The manufacturers generally say they are in no hurry to put the men to work.

Although the quarry owners and the men are firm in holding out, it is believed influence will be brought to bear, and the difficulty settled.

An English Syndicate.

The quarry owners of this city have been approached by an agent of an English syndicate, said to have a backing of $2,000,000, who view the purchasing.

A representative of the PATRIOT has interviewed a few of the representative granite firms relative to the proposed syndicate.

The senior member of the firm of C. H. Hardwick & Co. was out of town, but Mr. C. Theodore Hardwick was seen. He said the firm had the matter under advisement. It had been requested to place a price on its works, the proposed syndicate to have the privilege of closing the bargain during 1890, but as yet had not named the amount. The firm was not anxious to sell, but were willing to do so.

F. Hardwick & Son have not been approached, although they have one of the most promising quarries in the city. They did not place much stock in the movement.

Frederick & Field were asked two or three weeks ago to set a price on their works, but had not given the matter any consideration. Doubtful if the quarries could be bought. Would like to see local syndicate, but doubted if any English syndicate would benefit the city. Did not think any of the Quincy firms had yet set a price.

Swinton Bros. have been visited by an agent, but considered themselves bound to secrecy and would say little. Thought a wide awake syndicate would be a blessing to Quincy, and that more men would be employed.

The celebration of the 250th anniversary of the incorporation of Braintree was celebrated in grand style on Thursday. It was so fully reported in the DAILY LEDGER that Quincy can not attempt it here. The Considerable credit is due Mr. Summer Coolidge, the conductor, in the successful outcome of the season's work, also to the ladies who assisted on the club.

The club rooms on Chestnut street will be open during the summer, and it is understood that the executive committee have planned several entertainments for the members and their friends during the hot season. The club intend to increase their membership in the fall, and the residents of Quincy may expect good concerts next season.

Flag Presented.

Francis L. Souther Camp, S. V., was taken by storm Monday evening by the Grand Army and Woman's Relief Corps. It was the regular meeting night and the descent was a surprise. Commanders Williams presided, and called upon Judge Souther to pronounce the verdict. The foreman brought in a beautiful silk flag, and Comrade Souther made the presentation.

Captain Bowker accepted the gift, briefly thanking the donors. He then read a poem written for the occasion which was handed him.

After singing the "Star Spangled Banner," Comrade Curtis presented surprise number two and three to the Post, first the silk marker of the old 4th Regiment, by which the company formed by the late Francis L. Souther was easily identified. The foreman brought in a beautiful silk flag, and Comrade Souther made the presentation.

The death of Mr. James H. Bell last Monday at the residence of his father-in-law Mr. Pierce, on Canal street, was a sudden blow to his friends, but few knowing of his sickness which was but a few days' duration, had been attending the celebration at Braintree. For several years he had been in widowhood, and reside with their neices, Mrs. A. Fisher. They are in comfortable health, and bid fair to reach the century mark. It may be doubted if a similar instance of longevity of their sister, Mrs. Sally Smith, died here in 1885, aged ninety-seven years and six months.

Ninety-Third Birthday.

FRANCIS L. SOUDER, 1st Violin.—Mrs. Hepzibah Everett and Mrs. Sally Cole, twin daughters of the late Isaac and Elizabeth Colburn of this town, celebrated yesterday their arrival at the age of ninety-three years. They are in comfortable health, and bid fair to reach the century mark. Their sister, Mrs. Sally Smith, died here in 1885, aged ninety-seven years and six months.

School Census.

Mr. E. Emery Fellows, employed by the School Committee during the month of May in taking the school census of the city, favored us with the following figures of children between the ages of 5 and 15 years:

South District,	1024
Centre	485
Point	325
West	1161
Wollaston	332
Atlantic	338
Total,	3695

As compared with other years:

1886	1887	1888	1889	1890
South,	727	769	840	926
Centre,	461	461	480	481
Point,	376	380	393	353
West,	939	964	1008	1161
Wollaston,	343	328	328	313
Atlantic,	328	322	314	328
Total,	3088	3155	3405	3695

It will be noticed that the largest gains are in the South and West Districts. Of the total increase of 577, 519 was in these districts, and 297 in the former. While one has come from the latter, it has been a little more than held its own. The Center has a little more than held its own, Atlantic although 5 less than in 1888 is 2 more than last year, and the gain will be more rapid. Quincy Point has lost for three years and has now less children than any district in the city, while in 1886 two less had.

The school district and ward lines should not be confused. Take for instance the South Quincy district, the Ward One, is attended by children from Ward One, Two, Three, and Four. Some Ward Two children go to the Oddmire, a few Ward One children to the Willard. The Wollaston and Atlantic districts are practically the same as Ward Five and Six.

Sixteen of the 25 towns in Norfolk County have a smaller population than Quincy has school children. The total children being 3695, and the population of Milton in 1885, 3555; Wellesley, 3015; Norwell, 2,921; Foxboro, 2,814; Medway, 2,777; Duxbury, 2,661; Bellingham, 2,600; Dover, Hingham, Medfield, Millis, Needham, Norfolk, Sharon, Walpole, Wrentham.

If the school army is one-fourth of the population, Quincy now has a population of 14,690.

Fire.

An alarm about 4 P.M. Wednesday from Box 29 called the fire department to the estate of Fred Barnacle on the "new plains" at South Quincy. The Steamer responded promptly and located at Totman's brook on Centre street, some 1,000 or more feet away. Owing to the great distance it was not possible to get to the scene of the fire, and the fire was hardly satisfactory. The furniture was mostly moved from the first floor and saved. There were frequent bursts in the hose, and all the firemen could do was to stand around and see the building burn, whereas had there been water handy, the loss would undoubtedly have been small. The house was valued at $2,000 and was insured for $1,500. It is a total loss.

Mr. Barnacle owned one side and Mr. William Dawson the other. The former loses $500 on furniture, which was insured for $400, and Mr. Dawson loses about $300 on which there was no insurance.

Before the fire was under control, Mr. Dawson happened to think of $25 he had placed in a book in his chamber for safe keeping. It was problematic whether it had been burned or not, and it was risky to search for it, but Mr. John Newcomb of the Hook and Ladder Company, made the effort and was successful. The book was pretty well burned.

The Nonpareil Club.

The Nonpareil Club, composed of the following named members have completed a second most successful season:

Active Members.

Mrs. Wilson Tisdale, President. Mrs. Rufus Foster, Vice President. Mrs. Alonzo Durgin, Secretary.

Mrs. E. H. Federlin, Mrs. A. F. Kelley, Mrs. Samuel Crane, Mrs. John Field, Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. T. B. Thomas, Mrs. Thomas W. Lincoln, Mrs. Joseph Morse.

Honorary Members.

Mrs. Mary D. Foster, Miss Mabel Shaw. Since November 1 the club has held a regular afternoon weekly meeting.

During the season each lady has held a reception of the members of the club and their husbands and sweethearts respectively. The last two receptions were held at Mrs. H. M. Federlin's and Mrs. John Shaw's. The last on Thursday made a most successful closing of these entertainments. At 12:30 A.M. when about to separate the neighbors who thought most surely that Point Holes was being bombarded.

A business meeting to prepare for the annual summer outing was held at Mrs. Rufus Foster's Thursday evening. The club voted to go to the Black Rock House on the Jerusalem road on the 14th inst. At that time the festivities will be on a scale sufficient to exhaust the treasury, which is at present overflowing.

Memorial Window.

A handsome and costly memorial window was placed Thursday afternoon of last week, in the Thomas Crane Public Library. It is the work of the great artist John La Farge, and is of stained glass, and takes the place of the beautiful onyx window which was destroyed by the frost a year or more ago. The new window bears the following inscription:

He is risen—Mark xxi:1.

In Memory of Benjamin Franklin Crane. Born Feb. 4, 1842. Died Oct. 12, 1888.

Memorial day Mrs. Thomas Crane and her son Albert, of Stamford, Conn., visited Quincy. They were met at the depot by the trustees. They found the library very prettily decorated with flowers. The window, the gift of Mrs. Crane, and her son, was presented without ceremony.

CITY HOSPITAL. A feature of the Hospital date on the 14th inst., will be a little sketch of all the physicians of Quincy, from the earliest times until now, embracing the names of more than sixty. This is being arranged by Mrs. Anne E. Faxon, and it is hoped that by selling it for 25 cents a copy, a large number will be purchased. It will be on sale at the hospital grounds during the fete, and will be a souvenir of the day.

Dedication of Hospital.

The exercises at the dedication of the hospital next Tuesday, will take place at 2 P.M., and the programme will be as follows:

Singing, School Children; Prayer, Rev. D. M. Wilson, pastor of First church.

W. B. Rice, Esq., president of the corporation, Hon. C. H. Porter, mayor; Dr. A. G. Gordon, Readings, Dr. Edward Norton, Rev. A. F. Roche, Singing, School Children; Benediction, Rev. H. E. Cotton.

The Committee on Music and Dancing for the Hospital will take great pleasure in announcing that everything is arranged and ready for the dance. Those who only to spend their leisure time until the eventful day, worrying hard about the weather. We are told that in Old England an out door fete under umbrellas is not regarded as unusual or especially disagreeable. But here in New England we shall be content with nothing less than the brightest sun-shine and softest of western breeze for this long day.

The Quincy City Band have kindly promised to give their services as a concert which will be given after the dance. Their programme is given below. The dance programme was arranged by the committee so as to introduce many of our popular airs, and with appropriate titles for the dances.

Minor Details.

Barges will be at the Quincy depot at the arrival of the train from Boston and Braintree to carry passengers to the Hospital grounds on Tuesday next.

Please bear in mind that you can have your fortune told and get a peep into the future of the gypsy camp at the hospital fete on the 12th. You may also buy a handsome gypsy basket as a memento of the opening of the new City Hospital.

The treasurer of the Hospital Aid Association, Mrs. W. E. Simmons, will be on hand at the Hospital grounds during the hours of the fete on the 12th, headquarters on the plaza of the Hospital and will receive membership fees or any contributions of money for the benefit of the Hospital.

Contributions of cake are solicited for the Centre Quincy ice cream table, June 17th, and may be left at houses of Mrs. A. M. Perkins, Chestnut street, Mrs. C. F. Pierce, Washington street, and Mrs. F. E. Hall, Hancock street, on the afternoon of Monday June 16th, or before 10 o'clock. A. M.

The St. Mary's of West Quincy will play a game of base ball at 3 P.M. on the 17th. At the Hospital grounds with the Benevolent Society. The games to be played for this special occasion include some of our well known citizens who will bring out the fine points of the game in bold relief. His Honor the Mayor will umpire the game and show the boys that a good majority makes a good umpire.

Among the attractions at the Hospital fete on the seventeenth will be "Rebekah at the Well." Rebekah will be attired in appropriate costume and will serve lemonade, the real genuine article to all who are there. The girls will be dressed in white, well, itself, the beautiful and obliging Rebekah, the heat of day, and a variety of other circumstances will probably cause a multitude to gather around this favorite spot, all of whom will be cared for and sent away happy.

The work of furnishing the new Quincy Hospital goes nobly on. Since publishing the list of articles needed for the different rooms in the PATRIOT on Saturday last, we have had many applications for the articles the names needed for the bath room; Mrs. James Edwards the furniture for the parlor; and Edwin B. Pratt, the dining room articles, and by other generous persons, some $40 more have been contributed; making about $300 in all. Thus the good work goes on.

Children's Sunday.

Very pretty and interesting exercises were held at the First Congregational church in this city last Sunday morning. It was children's day, and the little folks were out in large numbers, not only the Sunday school, but many younger children. The floral display was beautiful, daisies and pansies playing a prominent part. The central design was a large easel of daisies, which formed a background on which was mounted the word "PRAISE" in pansies. Praise was the theme of the morning.

Following the usual devotional exercises we had a short service of singing. The primary department then entered and were arranged on the platform. Many of the boys and girls spoke verses, and there were solos and choruses and concert recitations. A quartette composed of members of the choir sang a selection, and class recitations and songs and a duet followed. A collection was taken and the pastor gave the benediction.

"What is the theme of joy today?" The primary department then entered and were arranged on the platform. Many of the boys and girls spoke verses, and there were solos and choruses and concert recitations. A quartette composed of members of the choir sang a selection, and class recitations and songs and a duet followed. A collection was taken and the pastor gave the benediction.

The business at John E. Drake & Co.'s boot factory is rushing. The electric power not being all that was desired, the firm have decided to put in steam power; a five-horse boiler and thirty-horse engine has been procured of Badger Bros., the most capable machinists to be found in the country. The engines are placed in a fire-proof building in the rear of the factory. The indications are that the machinery will be ready to be put in motion by the Fourth of July.

The Wollastonians begin a series of games with the Atlantics on June 17th, for the championship of Quincy. There is intense rivalry between the teams, and as they are very evenly matched, two exciting contests are assured. The Atlantics come to Wollaston in the morning, game being called at the Merrimount Park grounds.

Electric cars pass the grounds.

In the afternoon the Wollastonians play at Atlantic, game being called at 3 P.M.

The Wollastonians are much stronger than last season, and are playing fine ball.

Indications for Saturday: Fair and slightly warmer.

Fourth of July.

The labors of a few enterprising citizens who were anxious to have a celebration in Quincy, are resulting most favorable, and there remains no doubt that this city will have a very nice Fourth of July celebration; and that our citizens can remain at home and spend their money, instead of going to Boston and other places.

At a meeting held on Wednesday evening at Ward room, City hall, the following committee were appointed:

Mr. George H. Brown, Horace A. Felt, H. P. Kittredge.

On Fireworks.—Albert Keating, P. J. Williams, Charles C. Hearn, George H. Brown, F. F. Green.

On Printing.—George W. Prescott, F. F. Green.

On Ringing Bells.—George Jones, Alfred Mead, T. L. Williams, George A. Litchfield.

Children's Entertainment.—H. O. Souther, George Saville.

On Base Ball.—H. P. Kittredge, F. E. Burdell, A. P. Wentworth.

A Committee of People consisting of about forty of our well known business men was also appointed.

There will be three prizes in each department of the procession of $15, $10 and $5, which will have the tendency to make the procession both attractive and amusing.

The celebration committee has been organized as follows: Chairman, F. F. Green; Secretary, George H. Brown; Treasurer, Albert Keating.

A subscription paper can be found at the PATRIOT office, and all who wish to aid in the celebration, can do so by sending a sum, or, if invited to call or send their names and amount to the PATRIOT office. This paper is not intended for heavy subscriptions, but for ten, twenty-five or fifty cents; but if anyone wishes to put down one hundred dollars we shall not refuse to take it.

Knights of Honor Banquet.

The finest gathering which has ever taken place in Wollaston, on behalf of the Knights of Honor lodge of that thriving section of Quincy, occurred Thursday, the occasion being the reception given in honor of the Supreme Dictator of the order of Knights of Honor, Hon. Albert R. Savage of Auburn, Maine. Few lodges could have given such a welcome to any member, and the diversity of talent displayed in giving expression to the feelings of the Lodge to its chief executive officer, this paper is not intended for heavy subscriptions, but for ten, twenty-five or fifty cents; but if anyone wishes to put down one hundred dollars we shall not refuse to take it.

Children's Sunday.

Very pleasing services were held in the First church Sunday morning at 10:30, and a good sized congregation was in attendance. The pulpit was profusely and prettily trimmed with plants and flowers. On the background was a large cross of white peonies. Hydrangers were quite conspicuous.

In the professional the Sunday school numbers in the front room filled the hillside. The six little children baptized were brought forward by the parents. The pastor took them one by one in his arms, gave each a christening and christened them.

Miss Adams' reading was clear and expressive, and the young girls sang the trio very sweetly.

The financial report of Mr. Gordon Keating, the treasurer, showed a surplus. The number of teachers was 25; pupils, 116. The largest attendance was on Jan. 20, 145, and the average 55 per cent.

The pastor spoke in high terms of the two who had passed away during the year. His address, No. 14 on the program, was general.

The semi-annual election of Mount Wollaston Lodge, I. O. O. F., will take place next Thursday evening.

The Ladies' Hospital association, will meet at the city hospital on Wednesday next, June 25, at 2 o'clock P.M.

Miss Mary E. Coligan, a teacher in our public schools, fell from the electric cars on Sunday and broke her arm.

Mr. Patrick Barry is erecting a barn on Atlantic avenue.

The unoccupied house on Walker street, which has never yet had a tenant, since it was built, has at last been let, much to the satisfaction of neighbors.

Mr. David Nelson contemplates putting up a double house on his Atlantic street lot, and Mr. Bassett takes of the same on Walker street. Both houses will be good size and of modern architecture.

The grand class of the Quincy School will give some very interesting lectures at the Memorial Chapel next Wednesday afternoon at 3 P.M.

Now that the work of framing has actually begun on the hall the promise is made that it shall be pushed through as fast as possible.

Mr. L. W. Lombard, of Boston, has moved to Atlantic and has taken half of the Clark house.

Atlantic held her up well at the Hospital festival in the way of contributions and it did seem though the place was deserted so many of our people were there.

South Shore accommodation has been increased by one train; which leaves here at 1:40 P.M. with through cars for Narragansett beach and way stations.

Everyone should taste the new delicious cereal Rex Wheat served free with cream next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at the store of Rogers Bros.

Will be sold at private sale at the residence of Mrs. Tisale on Washington street, Quincy, all the fancy articles left over from the Hospital fair.

Messrs. George H. Brown & Co., real estate agents, have sold to Miss E. L. Sergeant, lot No. 43, on property of the Greenleaf Land Associates.

South Shore accommodation has been increased by one train; which leaves here at 1:40 P.M. with through cars for Narragansett beach and way stations.

The Brookton Enterprise thinks Quincy is fortunate indeed in her public gifts, and hopes that they will be as generously remembered in the years to come.

First CLASS.

Charles Tilden Howard of Hingham, Delevante King of Quincy.

SECOND CLASS.

Orlando Davis Hammond of Memphis, Tenn. Ralph Shaw Pitts of Quincy. Alvia Morrison Bass of Quincy. Reginald Hathaway Johnson of Braintree.

THIRD CLASS.

Edward Stoddard of Cincinnati, Ohio. Walter G. Quinn of Yonkers, N.Y. Arthur Williams Hall of Quincy. Arthur Bridge Wendell of Quincy. Summer Chapman of Hanson. Carlton Cushing Lane of Quincy.

FOURTH CLASS.

Roy White McClinton of Wollaston.

LADIES IN OFFICE.

At the regular meeting of Maple Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor No. 313, Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

Pat. Protector.—John M. Miller. Protective—John A. Miller.

Vice-Pat. Protector.—Elizabeth W. Pratt. Secretary.—Angie D. Loud.

Financial Secretary.—Francis P. Loud. Treasurer.—Harriet W. Tirrell. Chaplain.—Isabella Souther. Guide.—M. Lizzie Farnall. Quartermaster.—Charles Crane. Sentinel.—Albert G. Shaeckley.

Old Colony.

The double daily service of the Fall River between Boston and New York is now in full effect for the season—two steamers on week-days, the first line from Boston and the second from New York stopping at Newport. Also, the magnificent new Pullman vestibuled train between New York and Boston, in connection with the double boat service, began on the date of the annual meeting, and will be running every day.

We are pleased to learn that Camp No. 27, Sons of Veterans, is in a prosperous condition. Nine recruits were mustered in on Thursday evening and quite a number are on the point of joining, and by the August parade in Boston, the steamboat express trains of the Fall River line now arrive at and depart from the Park Station of that system in Boston.

Championship Race, Saturday.

The first champion yacht race for the season of 1890, takes place today at 2 o'clock.

The start will be made from the end of the float at the club house, and as the boats will pass twice between the club house and the stake boat, the race will be more advantageously seen from the shore, than any race that has been sailed in these waters. The accommodations at the club house for members and their families are ample, and the sight will be a fine one.

The house committee hope that a large number will avail themselves of the privilege of the club house.

SPRING WATER. One of the greatest essentials to health is pure water, which hydrants seldom supply. The Quincy service is no exception to that general rule, hence all our citizens who do not have good wells are victims to one of the great growing evils, that of drinking impure water. The need has long existed for some thing better, here, to be supplied by the Allandale Spring Company from Boston. It would be no flattery to say that the speakers made by the above mentioned brethren were exceptionally fine, and many of them will be noticed, while others will be noticed, with laughter by the ast锐ion and telling anecdotes from the beginning. The oratory was of a high order and each speaker, without having had the least hindrance in a pleasing way upon the different phases of the great work and benefice of the Knights of Honor organization throughout the entire land.

No such banquet was ever given in Wollaston, and on no occasion in this village have the addresses been made. It was a social meeting of the Knights of Honor, and by Wollaston lodges, which is the banner lodge of the Massachusetts jurisdiction, having won the prize silk banners from the Grand Lodge for the greatest increase in membership during the past year; and for this addition of numbers, Past Dictator Charles R. Sherman is entitled to the greatest credit, and the brothers gave him evidence of their appreciation for his efforts to increase the property of the lodge.

On Friday evening the company arose to receive the thanks of General Orcutt for the large attendance and eminent success which had characterized the occasion, after which the brothers gave the Supreme Dictator hearty shakes of the hand and kind wishes for his personal welfare, and for his complete success as head of the Knights of Honor in the United States.

Special Meeting Called.

Councilman Green is now anxious to have a special meeting of the City Council called to consider the Fourth of July order. Otherwise it would be loss as the regular meeting will not be held until July 7. He has interviewed the Mayor and his honor promised to call a meeting on the request of twelve Councilmen, which is a majority of Council.

Children's Sunday.

Fourth of July.

NOTICE.

Next Friday will be the Glorious Fourth, consequently the PATRIOT will be printed and distributed Thursday evening.

The DAILY LEDGER will not be issued on the Fourth, but the paper of Saturday, July 5, will contain full particulars of the celebration.

Fourth of July Celebration.

Everybody will feel like "Rahing" next Friday, both old and young, while Quincy, and her friends, the young, will probably insist on a gala appearance and invite all her sisters and neighbors to come and share in the festivities.

The Fourth of July only comes once a year and a celebration, well, when the spirit moves. The citizens have done nobly in contributing, and it is hoped that the City Council will do its share, the small sum of $300 will be the best spent money the city can enjoy the present year. It requires $100 to pay the expenses of this time, and the amount asked for carefully, and are to report in a few days.

ORDER OF PROCESSION.

Procession of Police under the direction of Deputy Chief Geo. O. Langley.

City Brass Band.

C. H. Marshall.

Fred. F. Green and Staff, Quincy Fire Department.

Walter H. Ripley, Chief.

Civic Organizations.

Trades, Features and Tableaux of Ward 1.

Deputy Marshal,

H. O. Souther and Staff.

Trades, Features and Tableaux of Ward 2.

Deputy Marshal,

Peter J. Williams and Staff.

Weymouth Brass Band.

Trades, Features and Tableaux of Ward 3.

Deputy Marshal,

Charles C. Hearn and Staff.

Trades, Features and Tableaux of Ward 4.

The route over which the procession will move is shorter than that of 1885 and yet it covers all sections of the city equally as well. It was with much regret that the committee omitted going to Wollaston, as it is unreasonable to expect those who will march to walk such a distance.

The place of starting the procession will be on Granite street, junction of Quarry, where all who march will be easily identifiable as well as the spectators.

The route—Up Granite, up Copeland to Cross, through Cross, down Copeland, down Water, to Pleasant, to Quincy, to Mars, to School, Franklin to Independence avenue, countermarching to School street, through School, Hancock to Temple, Washington to Edwards, Union, Elm to Hancock to Adams, countermarching near residence of Mr. William B. Rice, and passing up Hancock street, where in front of City Hall the procession will be reviewed by the Chief Marshal and staff and at this time the judges will make their decisions on the merits of every feature and award the prizes.

Order of forming—Division 1 will form on Granite street, right resting on Quarry street; Division 2 will form on School street, right resting at junction of Granite; Division 3 on School street, right resting on Mars; Division 4 on Garfield street, right resting on Quarry.

Fire Crackers.

Out of town parties are invited to compete for prizes in the parade on the morning of the Fourth.

The judges for awarding the prizes in the parade are: Trade division—Ex-Councilman Levi Stevens, Hon. W. A. Hodges and Mr. P. H. Gavins. Household features—Major C. H. Porter, Edward Whicker, Esq., and ex-Councilman John Shaw. Civic organizations—Mr. Peter Dakers, Mr. George Cahill and Mr. E. R. Souther.

Quincy Associates Entertained.

For the first time since their quarters have been enlarged and refurnished the Quincy Associates entertained guests on Wednesday. The pretty suite of apartments decorated with tropical plants and illuminated by the tri-colored electric chandeliers seemed especially suited for the visitations of the lady friends of the club and a gathering of seventy-five made merry in the hours of bachelorhood.

President and Mrs. Hitchcock and Secretary and Mrs. Very assisted in entertaining with the committee Messrs. J. F. Merrill and F. L. W. Shepard.

Drive whilst amongst the majority, while many of the ladies demonstrated how expert they might become at pool and billiards.

Catering Wales provided a equal delight to the occasion, and the parting verdict of the lady visitors went far toward rehabilitating the old saws of wayward benevolence and their affinity for an evening hour at the club.

A picnic by the United Labor of this city will be held at Lovell's Grove, North Weymouth, Saturday, July 5. All the members will meet at the corner of Franklin and Water streets, form a procession and march from that point up Water to Granite to School, School to Hancock and then to City Hall, where the procession will disband and take care for the grove. Games of several kinds will be held during the day for suitable prizes, and there will be continuous dancing in the grove. A band will be stationed in the grove and will give a band concert. A number of good speakers will also address the people.

Graduation Exercises.

Wollaston School.

The graduating exercises of the Wollaston grammar school, took place in the Wollaston hall of that building, Wednesday afternoon. Unusual interest centered in the exercises at the Cornhill prize for the best essay on "Kindness to Animals" given by Wardell.

The winning summary was as follows:

1890. 1889. 1888. 1887.

Adams ..... 27 20 15 22

Coddington ..... 27 25 18

Johnston ..... 24 14 15

Washington ..... 18 16 14 15

Willard ..... 29 21 26 17

Wollaston ..... 21 13 13 13

Totals ..... 146 123 113 98

The increased number in the smallest ward has most marked the Wollaston school in Ward Five where thirteen had become a regular thing, jumped to twenty-one, and the Quincy school in Ward six increased from fourteen to twenty-four. The Willard, as in the past two years, heads the list, but the number of graduates is two less than a year ago. The number of Coddington graduate is also smaller, while the Washington and Adams is larger.

The graduating exercises are given below:
